PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Once again, March is here and our winter will soon be coming to an end for our northern friends and families. Please, during this month, stop in the office and fill out your departure forms emergency information forms, and your comments for us to review for next year. If you have not already done so and would like to be on the email list, please fill out that form also. Be sure that you have someone to look after your place during the summer months and will take care of the weeds in all of your flower beds. Please remember that during the summer months we do loose power and have power surges that can knock out refrigerators and AC units. It can be a real mess for the people looking out for your place. There is no reason for you to have food in your refrigerator/freezers for 6 months and take the chance of having to replace your refrigerator because of a smell that stays from spoiled food.

I would like to speak for the whole Board and say thank you and welcome to Frank Bull and Ricky Morningstar as our new Board Members. They will have a lot to offer. Frank is here often throughout the summer and that will come in handy on summer projects. Most importantly, we the Board and the Shareholders of Edgewater Pines ROC, Inc., want to thank MARILYN McKINLEY, for her years of service as a Board Member, the ROC Treasurer, ROC Secretary, Office Board Member during the summer months, Residents' Club Treasurer, and MOST OF ALL, A PILLAR OF EDGEWATER PINES ROC, INC. FROM THE VERY BEGINNING. THANK YOU MARILYN FROM ALL OF EDGEWATER PINES.

Dave and Ricky have the gazebo in the cross hairs for the Men's Club to revitalize starting December 9th. Thanks to the Men's Club for all the projects they did and paid for around the Park. And thanks to all of you for participating in the functions the Men's Club put on to fund their projects. Thanks to Sheila, Jane, Judy, and Kathy for heading up the Residents' Club this year on such short notice. Everything they have done has looked very nice.

By State Law 719, new Board Members are required to attend class to be a Board Member. This year, the whole Board decided to do the class together so that everyone is on the same page at the same time. Our attorney, Richard Zacur, teaches these classes. We were able to sit down with him in the privacy of his board room, and address questions that apply to our Park specifically.

For all of you leaving before the April Newsletter comes out, have a safe trip home. Stay safe and healthy and we look forward to seeing all of you next fall.

Jeff Trucker, President

APRON AND COOKIES TEA

Thursday afternoon, February 21st, saw the Clubhouse filled with antique quilts, tables laden with newer quilted articles for sale, and festively decorated tea tables for the Edgewater Pines Quilters' Group annual fund raiser. This year the theme was "Aprons and Cookies". The setting magically transported us back to our childhood when our mother always wore an apron to not only keep her dress clean, but also to wipe away a tear or dirt from our face. And if that didn't work, she'd give us a warm cookie she'd just taken out of the oven.

Kathy Snow welcomed all with a reading about the usefulness of our mother's aprons – from carrying eggs gathered from the chicken house to dusting the furniture as unexpected visitors arrived. Many of our guests wore aprons from that period.

The antique quilts displayed on tables and hanging on the walls depicted the 1940's era. They ranged from heavy hand quilted velvets for double beds to fragile finely stitched baby quilts. Omar England shared with us the story of his mother's quilt pieces which are currently being hand quilted by the Park Quilt Group.

There were tables of quilted new articles to purchase, a live auction of some special aprons, a colorful comfort quilt and homemade breads and buns. A special comfort quilt "hug" was given to Alyce Wilmot to wear on chilly days at her retirement home. Special draws were held with Betty McCarter winning the Lighthouse wall hanging.

Our thanks go to everyone who attended our tea, to the ladies from the KOA, to auctioneer Doug, and apron models: Maggie, Wendy, Suzanne, Hazel, PC, and Judy; to Kitchen Diva Cindy; dishwashers Tom and Omar. With your help, the quilt group has raised sufficient funds to continue our outreach program for next year on behalf of Edgewater Pines. Thank you.

SHUFFLEBOARD SOCIAL

The Annual Shuffleboard Social was held on Wednesday, February 27th. There were approximately 50 people for lunch and 28 players for the tournament. Mother Nature made us change the format for the tournament a little bit. But, before the rain came, it was Butch Roe and Terry Stanley that came out on top of all of the teams. Cindy Appel, the daughter of Judy and Gene Appel, achieved an amazing event when she was able to put all four (4) of her pucks in the 10 area. Many of the regular players had never seen this done. I would like to thank everyone that helped out with the lunch and Will Smith and Paul Cefaly for running the tournament. Also, A BIG SHOUT OUT GOES TO JOHN HENEGHAN FOR RUNNING THE SHUFFLEBOARD SOCIALS AND BREAKFASTS FOR MANY, MANY YEARS.
